Please be advised that when we provide services to persons seeking bankruptcy protection, the law considers us to be a "DEBT RELIEF AGENCY." It is routine for attorneys in our firm, such as myself, to help individuals and entities seek protection from creditors by filing for Bankruptcy Relief under the United States Bankruptcy Code. Additionally, as part of our complete range of bankruptcy related services, we also routinely represent other parties commonly involved in bankruptcy cases such as commercial and residential landlords, commercial and residential lenders, banks, auto lenders, equipment financiers, trade creditors and bankruptcy trustees, among others.

To ensure compliance with requirements imposed by the IRS in Circular 230, be advised that federal tax advice, if any, contained in this communication (including any attachments) is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code or for promoting, marketing or recommending to another party any transaction or matter that does so.

Randy,

I represent Adrian Morales and Eagle Realty Group, the debtor's landlord in this case. We are going to file a motion to lift the stay to permit a previously filed eviction (for non-payment of rent) to proceed. I'm writing to see if you oppose that relief as the Trustee. I also left you a voicemail.

Please let me know. I intend to file our motion in the next few days. Thanks.

Very truly yours,

Michael Poynter
